SENTIENT JET, LLC

Plaintiff,

v.

CHRISTOPHER EARLY,

Defendant

MISCELLANEOUS
BUSINESS DOCKET NO.:P J H*RESPONDING PARTIES' MOTION TO QUASH SUBPOENAS AND TO OBTAIN PROTECTIVE ORDER PURSUANT TO
Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(c)(1), 45(c)(3)(A)(iii)-(iv) and 45(c)(3)(B)(i)

Come now the responding parties ("Responding Parties"), Bird Dog Jet, LLC and Pat Kelly Lipp, together with Christopher Early whose interests are also implicated herein, in this Miscellaneous Business Docket Matter and move this Honorable Court, pursuant to and consistent with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(c)(1), 45(c)(3)(A)(iii)-(iv) and 45 (c)(3)(B)(i), to quash the subpoenas served upon said Responding Parties and to enter a protective order in accord with the prayers set forth below.

As grounds in support of the within motion the Responding Parties state and aver as follows:

1. The instant matter is a Miscellaneous Business Docket matter.¹
2. The underlying case was brought by the Plaintiff against the Defendant in his capacity as a former employee of the Plaintiff. (1/1-14; 5/1-4).
3. The Plaintiff contends, inter alia, that the Defendant violated the terms of a Non-Solicitation Covenant, which consists of a Customer Solicitation Provision and a Vendor Supplier Solicitation Provision, which was contained in the Confidentiality, Non-Solicitation and Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") executed by both parties at the inception of the Defendant's employment. (1/1-14; 5/1-4; A/1-7).

¹References to the contemporaneously filed five (5) exhibits shall be to the Exhibit Number and Page, e.g. (1/1-14). References to the contemporaneously filed affidavit shall be to the implicated page, e.g. (A/2).

4. The Non-Solicitation Covenant in the Agreement seeks to foreclose the Defendant from “directly or indirectly...transact[ing] business with any of the [Plaintiff’s]...customers” with “whom [Defendant] had Material Contact during the last twelve (12) months of [his] employment with the company...” (Customer Solicitation Provision) but it also purports to globally foreclose him from “directly or indirectly...transact[ing] business with any of the [Plaintiff’s] suppliers...” or “vendors” with “whom [Defendant] had Material Contact during the last twelve (12) months of [his] employment with the company...” (Vendor Supplier Solicitation Provision). (4/2).
5. The Defendant is now a principal of and employed by a third party company (Bird Dog Jet, LLC) and one of its employees is Pat Kelly Lipp. (A/1-3).
6. The thrust of the Plaintiff’s Complaint is that the Defendant transacted or attempted to transact business with the Plaintiff’s customers, with whom he had “material contact” in the last twelve (12) months of his employment, and that he converted the Plaintiff’s confidential information which, the Plaintiff posits, damaged it. (1/1-14).
7. Two subpoenas (collectively “Subpoenas”) were recently issued by this Court and served by the Plaintiff upon Bird Dog Jet, LLC and Pat Kelly Lipp. (singly “Bird Dog Jet Subpoena” and “Pat Kelly Lipp Subpoena”). (2/1-36; 3/1-39).
8. The Subpoenas seek both testimony and documents. (2/1-36; 3/1-39).
9. The Subpoenas are patently overbroad, burdensome and oppressive on their face insofar as the vast quantities of documents sought through them and the topics of proposed testimony (Bird Dog Jet Subpoena) are irrelevant to the underlying litigation and unlimited in both time and scope.
10. Many of the documents sought through the two Subpoenas were prepared in anticipation of litigation and for trial and are, absent the requisite showing, insulated from discovery pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(3). See, e.g., United States v. Nobles, 422 U.S. 225 (1975); Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).

11. Many of the documents sought through the two Subpoenas contain mental impressions, conclusions, opinions and legal theories of counsel for Christopher Early regarding legal matters, distinct from the present one, and are insulated from discovery by the work-product doctrine absent the requisite showing articulated by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(3). see U.S. v. Nobles, 422 U.S. 225 (1975).
12. Many of the documents sought are insulated from discovery by the attorney-client privilege which is hereby asserted. See United States v. Nobles, 422 U.S. 225 (1975); See also Hickman v. Taylor, 329 U.S. 495 (1947).
13. Vast quantities of documents sought would infringe upon the privacy and confidential interests of Bird Dog, Jet, Pat Kelly Lipp and Christopher Early insofar as the Subpoenas seek to compel production of income tax returns and other confidential financial data which are confidential under both State and Federal law. See 26 U.S.C. §6103.
14. The documents sought are unreasonably cumulative and duplicative and the scope of the Subpoenas is annoying, oppressive, unduly burdensome, overly broad, vague, ambiguous, vexatious and calculated to cause undue burden and expense. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 11(b)(2); 26(b)(1); 26(g)(1)(B)(i),(ii); 26(c)(1); 26(b)(2)(C)(i); 45(c)(3)(A)(iv); 34; 37(a)(5)(A).
15. The documents sought are not “reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence” within the context of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1) and the scope of the underlying action pending in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.
16. Nearly all of the documents sought are wholly irrelevant to any claim or defense in the underlying action within the context of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1) and Fed.R.Evid. 401.

17. Nearly all documents sought have no tendency to prove or disprove any fact of consequence to any claim or defense in the underlying action. See Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(b)(1); Fed.R.Evid. 401.
18. The documents sought are unlimited in scope, breadth and subject matter in violation of Fed.R.Civ.P. 11(b)(2); 26 (b)(1); 26 (g)(1)(B)(i),(ii); 26 (c)(1); 26(b)(2)(C)(i); 45(c)(3)(A)(iv); 34 and 37(a)(5)(A).
19. The Subpoenas impermissibly seek disclosure of trade secrets, confidential research and confidential commercial information in violation of Fed.R.Civ.P. 45(c)(3)(B)(1).
20. It is patently apparent that compliance with the Subpoenas would be prohibitively time consuming, burdensome and expensive for the Responding Parties and Christopher Early in violation of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(C)(1).
21. The Subpoenas plainly evidence an attempt by the Plaintiff to engage in an impermissible “fishing expedition” long foreclosed by the Federal Rules. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).
22. The contemporaneously filed memorandum and five (5) exhibits are expressly incorporated herein.

Wherefore, the Responding Parties and Christopher Early pray that this Honorable Court:

- A. Quash the two Subpoenas relative to documents sought and the topics of testimony upon which testimony is sought (Bird Dog Jet Subpoena);
- B. Determine, hold and find that that Bird Dog Jet, LLC shall not be required to respond to any of the topics of testimony set forth in the Bird Dog Jet Subpoena;
- C. Determine, hold and find that that Bird Dog Jet, LLC shall not be required to produce any of the documents sought through the Bird Dog Jet Subpoena;
- D. Determine, hold and find that that Pat Kelly Lipp shall not be required to produce any of the documents sought through the Pat Kelly Lipp Subpoena;
- E. Enter a Protective Order which forbids the Plaintiff from attempting in the future to subject the Responding Parties, or Christopher Early, to discovery requests of the type set forth in the two Subpoenas;

- F. Determine, hold and find that the Responding Parties and Christopher Early possess all privileges, privacy interests and rights to confidential records and information as addressed herein and in the contemporaneously filed Memorandum;
- G. Permit the Responding Parties, upon allowance of this Motion and in accord with Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(a)(5)(A), to file an affidavit in support of the imposition of attorneys' fees and costs on the Plaintiff; and
- E. Enter any other and further relief which it deems meet and just.

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 1 of 14

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

SENTIENT JET, LLC,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Civil Action No.

CHRISTOPHER EARLY,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

For the past year and a half, the defendant Christopher Early masqueraded as a loyal vice president of sales and salesperson for the plaintiff Sentient Jet, LLC (“Sentient Jet”). Sentient Jet recently terminated Mr. Early after learning the disturbing truth: Mr. Early had founded and was running a competing business, Bird Dog Jet, LLC (“Bird Dog Jet”), while employed by Sentient Jet. He operated his new company out of Sentient Jet’s office, using Sentient Jet’s resources, by stealing Sentient Jet’s confidential information, and by siphoning off clients and opportunities.

This is a case to recover the considerable monetary damages incurred by Sentient Jet as a result of Mr. Early’s wrongful and disloyal acts, including but not limited to all of Sentient Jet’s lost profits, all of Mr. Early’s wrongful gains, all compensation paid by Sentient Jet to Mr. Early during the pendency of his disloyal acts, and attorneys’ fees pursuant to contract and statute.

PARTIES

1. The Plaintiff, Sentient Jet, LLC, is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the state of Delaware with a principal place of business in Braintree, Massachusetts. Sentient Jet, LLC was formerly known as “Sentient Flight Group, LLC.” “Sentient Jet Charter,

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 2 of 14

LLC" is wholly owned by Sentient Jet, LLC. Sentient Jet, LLC, Sentient Jet Charter, LLC and Sentient Flight Group, LLC will be referred to collectively as "Sentient Jet."

2. The defendant, Christopher Early, is a resident of Port Richmond, California.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to the Court's diversity jurisdiction, 28 U.S.C. § 1332. Sentient Jet is a Delaware limited liability company with its principal place of business in Massachusetts. Mr. Early is an individual who resides in California. There is, therefore, diversity of citizenship. The amount in controversy is more than $75,000. This Court also has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, because the case involves a federal question.

4. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Early pursuant to Mass. Gen. L. ch. 223A, sec. 3 and because Mr. Early consented to personal jurisdiction in this Court. Mr. Early affirmatively chose to work for Sentient Jet, a Massachusetts-based company, his salary was paid by a Massachusetts company, he traveled to Massachusetts for work on multiple occasions, and he communicated regularly and frequently with Sentient Jet's employees, clients and prospective clients in Massachusetts. Additionally, he traveled to Massachusetts to sign the agreement pertinent to this case and in that agreement he specifically consented to personal jurisdiction in Massachusetts. Finally, Sentient Jet's claims arise out of Mr. Early's creation of a competing business that conducts business in Massachusetts and diverts Sentient's clients, including its Massachusetts clients.

5. Venue is proper in this court because Sentient Jet is headquartered in Braintree, Massachusetts.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

Sentient Jet's Business and the Role of the Sales Director

6. Sentient Jet is in the business of brokering charter jet aircraft service. This is a specialized industry that caters to a small number of customers. Typical clients include wealthy individuals, corporations, professional athletes and entertainers. Sentient Jet devotes significant time and money identifying its customers and target customers, and cultivating relationships with them and protecting their privacy.

7. Sentient Jet's entire business is built upon the sales of its brokered charter jet aircraft services, and its most valuable assets are its relationships with its prospects, clients and vendors and its goodwill. Customers who use private jet charter services will often consider switching from one company to a competitor based on price, service, ability to have their privacy protected, and their own specialized needs and desires.

8. Sentient Jet's salespeople, called "Sales Directors," are keenly aware of this competition and use their knowledge of Sentient's clients (and Sentient's clients' preferences) to tailor Sentient Jet's sales efforts and services to both overcome the threat that a client may switch to a competitor and to secure new clients. The Sales Directors are the face of Sentient Jet to the clients and have a critical role in the company's success. Sentient Jet invests heavily in the efforts of the Sales Directors to establish and nurture relationships with customers on its behalf. Sentient Jet pays for its Sales Directors to travel to meet with clients and prospects, and to treat them to dinners and entertainment, provide them with marketing support and dedicated sales administration support, and operational support.

9. To succeed in this industry, Sentient Jet spends considerable time and resources to gather and keep detailed information on its prospects and clients, including contact information, types of accounts, customer flight histories, customer flight preferences, and customer feedback.

It also keeps and protects detailed information on its vendors, including contact names, negotiated pricing specific to Sentient and strategy, types of aircraft available, flight histories, rate information, Sentient inspection ratings, pilots' identities and qualitative insights such as integrity, reliability and safety of the vendors used and the methods by which Sentient Jet coordinates its technical, sales, and customer-service resources. This information and these insights and methods give Sentient Jet an opportunity to obtain an advantage over its competitors.

10. Because of the extremely competitive nature of the charter jet aircraft services industry, Sentient Jet heavily restricts access to its sales prospect catalog and to its proprietary database containing highly sensitive vendor and client information. Accordingly, Sentient Jet takes specific and measured steps to protect its confidential information.

11. The purpose of these steps – whether requiring employees to execute reasonable restrictive covenants, disabling employees' computer access upon separation of employment, utilizing computer passwords or issuing clear confidentiality policies – is to protect Sentient Jet's confidential and proprietary information and customer relationships, and, accordingly, to help Sentient Jet survive in its fiercely competitive industry.

Sentient Jet's Employment of Early

12. Mr. Early joined Sentient Jet in or about July 2009 as a Sales Director, and thereafter, in or about February 2012, was made Vice President of Sales. As Vice President of Sales, Mr. Early retained all of the duties and responsibilities that he had as Sales Director.

13. At the outset of his employment, Mr. Early voluntarily entered into and signed a Confidentiality, Nonsolicitation, Non-Disclosure Agreement. (The "Agreement," is attached hereto as Exhibit A.) Mr. Early signed the Agreement in Massachusetts.

14. The Agreement contains the following clear and reasonable obligations regarding the protection of Sentient Jet's – and, importantly, its customers' and potential customers' – confidential and proprietary information:

Duty of Confidentiality. To assist Employee in the performance of his or her duties for the Company, the Company has provided and will provide to Employee certain Confidential Information. Employee agrees that during employment with the Company and for a period of five (5) years following the cessation of that employment for any reason, Employee shall not directly or indirectly divulge or make use of any Confidential Information or Trade Secrets without prior written consent of the Company.

15. Under the Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" is defined as:

"Confidential Information" means information about Company and its employees, customers, vendors and/or suppliers which is not generally known outside of the Company, which Employee learns of in connection with Employee's employment with the Company, and which would be useful to competitors of the Company. Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to: (1) business and employment policies, marketing methods and the targets of those methods, financial data, business plans, promotional materials, price lists, price books, order guides, pricing and pricing strategies, profit and loss statements, and sales and account records; (2) present and prospective customer lists, customer classes, customer preferences and buying patterns, and customer credit information; (3) the terms upon which the Company obtains products from its vendors and/or suppliers and sells them to customers; and (4) the manner in which the Company provides products and services to its customers; and (5) the nature, origin, composition and development of the Company's brands and products.

16. The Agreement also contains the following clear and reasonable restriction regarding Mr. Early's solicitation of Sentient Jet's customers and vendors:

Non-Solicitation Covenant. Employee agrees that during employment with the Company and for a period of one (1) year following the cessation of employment for any reason, or one (1) year from the date a court of competent jurisdiction enforces the terms of the Agreement, whichever is later, Employee will not directly or indirectly solicit, attempt to solicit, divert from the Company or transact business with any of the Company suppliers, vendors, or customers with whom Employee had Material Contact during the last twelve (12) months of Employee's employment with the Company if the purpose of the solicitation, attempted solicitation, diversion or transaction is to offer products which are the same as or similar to those offered or provided by Employee on behalf of the

Company at the time Employee's employment ceased, so long as the Company is continuing to provide those services or products...

(Agreement at Section 5.)

17. Mr. Early agreed that if he breached the confidentiality or non-solicitation provisions in the Agreement, Sentient Jet would be entitled to recover from Mr. Early all costs and expenses incurred as a result, including reasonable attorneys' fees. (Agreement at Section 7.) The Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, Sentient Jet's state of formation. (Id. at 9(a).) The Agreement contains a forum selection clause wherein Mr. Early expressly consented to jurisdiction in Massachusetts. (Id.)

18. Sentient Jet would not have hired or let Mr. Early work nor would it have provided him with intimate access to its customers' confidential information and Sentient Jet's customer relationships and goodwill, without requiring him to execute covenants designed to protect its legitimate business interests.

19. In 2010, 2011 and 2012, Sentient Jet paid Mr. Early more than $100,000 per year.

20. Sentient also paid to rent an office in Port Richmond, California where Mr. Early could perform his work for Sentient.

21. Because of his position as Sales Director and Vice President and in reliance upon his commitments in the Agreement, Sentient Jet gave Mr. Early access to its protected databases that contain Sentient Jet's most sensitive confidential and proprietary information and trade secrets concerning its relationships with clients, prospective clients, and vendors.

Bird Dog Jet and Mr. Early's Conflicting Interests

22. During his employment at Sentient Jet, and unbeknownst to Sentient Jet, Mr. Early was working for a direct competitor to Sentient Jet, Bird Dog Jet. Bird Dog Jet is a company engaged in the same business as Sentient Jet, brokering private jet aviation. Mr. Early formed Bird Dog Jet in or about May 2011, filing an application with the Wyoming Secretary of State.

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 7 of 14

23. Mr. Early is the CEO of Bird Dog Jet, according to a form contract that was, at one time, posted on Bird Dog Jet's website.

24. Mr. Early ran Bird Dog Jet out of Sentient's office. In his corporate filings, Mr. Early listed Bird Dog Jet's address as 146 Washington, Point Richmond, California. This address is the same as the office unit that Sentient rented for Mr. Early to perform his Sentient work.

25. While employed by Sentient Jet, Mr. Early repeatedly used, disclosed and misappropriated confidential information belonging to Sentient Jet to assist the business of Bird Dog Jet.

26. Early also usurped opportunities belonging to Sentient Jet. For example, in the course of his work for Sentient, Mr. Early would learn of customers with needs for flights. He would then disclose these customer needs to a colleague at Bird Dog Jet, who would then contact the customer to compete with Sentient for the flight.

27. In furtherance of his wrongful activities, Mr. Early forwarded e-mails containing Sentient's confidential information to his personal (gmail.com) e-mail address.

28. Mr. Early knew full well that what he was doing was wrong. He was careful to hide from Sentient Jet the fact that he was associated with Bird Dog Jet.

COUNT I

Misappropriation Of Confidential, Proprietary And Trade Secret Information

29. Sentient Jet realleges and incorporates herein the foregoing allegations.

30. Applicable law prohibits the actual or threatened misappropriation of trade secrets.

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 8 of 14

31. Mr. Early is in possession of Sentient Jet's trade secret information including but not limited to confidential information about Sentient Jet's past, present and prospective future clients, and more particularly, those actual or potential clients' personal contact information, preferences, assets, objectives, and strategies as well as other confidential and proprietary analysis, pricing, plans, systems and programs.

32. Sentient Jet has taken reasonable steps to maintain the confidential nature of these trade secrets, including without limitation by requiring employees with access to such information to sign confidentiality agreements, and to acknowledge their obligation to keep such information confidential; restricting access to such information on a need-to-know basis; and maintaining the secrecy of the files.

33. The information used by Mr. Early has substantial value to Sentient Jet, in part because it is confidential and proprietary, and derives significant independent economic value from not being generally known to the public or to others who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use. If other companies could lawfully obtain access to that information, they would pay substantial amounts for the right to do so. Accordingly, the above-described information constitutes "trade secrets" under applicable law.

34. Mr. Early was and is under a duty to both keep Sentient Jet's confidential, proprietary and trade secret information secret, and not to use or disclose such information other than for the benefit of Sentient Jet. In abusing his access to Sentient Jet's system and using it for his own benefit and the benefit of Bird Dog Jet, Mr. Early and Bird Dog Jet knew that they acquired such information under circumstances giving rise to a breach of a duty to maintain its secrecy and limit its use, and/or derived such information from or though a person who has such a duty or through improper means. Mr. Early obtained the confidential, proprietary and trade secret information described above directly or indirectly from Sentient Jet, and not from generally available information or through his own independent research and efforts.

35. Mr. Early has improperly used and threatened to use those trade secrets, by, among other actions, using Sentient Jet's trade secrets to identify, target, and solicit actual and potential clients of Sentient Jet. Mr. Early' actions constitute misappropriation of Sentient Jet's trade secrets.

36. In addition, as a direct and proximate result of Mr. Early's misappropriation of Sentient Jet's trade secrets, Mr. Early has been unjustly enriched in an amount to be proven at trial, and Sentient Jet has sustained, and will continue to sustain, actual damages in an amount to be proven at trial, and well in excess of the amounts required for jurisdiction of this Court.

37. Each of the acts of misappropriation was done willfully and maliciously by Mr. Early, with the deliberate intent to injure Sentient Jet's business, and to improve his own business, and for his own financial gain, thereby entitling Sentient Jet to exemplary damages to be proven at trial.

38. The copying, disclosure and/or use of such information by Mr. Early constitutes an unauthorized copying, disclosure or use of confidential information in violation of the common law and statutory law, including but not limited to Mass. Gen. L. c. 93, secs. 42 and 42A.

COUNT II
Breach of Contract

39. Sentient Jet realleges and incorporates herein the allegations in Paragraphs 1 through 28.

40. The Agreement is a valid contract, supported by consideration.

41. Sentient Jet has performed its obligations under the Agreement.

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 10 of 14

42. Mr. Early has breached the Agreement by his conduct herein described, including but not limited to:

- a. Divulging and using Sentient's Confidential Information; and
- b. Soliciting Sentient Jet's suppliers, vendors or customers.

43. Sentient Jet has suffered and will suffer substantial harm as a result of Mr. Early's actions.

COUNT III
Breach of Duty of Loyalty

44. Sentient Jet realleges and incorporates herein the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 12, 19, 22, 23, 24 and 26.

45. As an employee of Sentient Jet, Mr. Early owed Sentient Jet an undivided duty of loyalty.

46. Mr. Early breached his duty of loyalty by the acts herein described, including but not limited to secretly working for a direct competitor during the term of his employment with Sentient Jet.

47. Mr. Early breached his duty of loyalty by the acts herein described, including but not limited to secretly owning a direct competitor during the term of his employment with Sentient Jet.

48. Mr. Early breached his duty of loyalty by the acts herein described, including but not limited to taking corporate opportunities of Sentient Jet for his own personal gain during the term of his employment with Sentient Jet.

49. As a result of Mr. Early's breach of his duty of loyalty, Sentient Jet has suffered and will suffer substantial harm.

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 11 of 14

COUNT IV
Intentional Interference with Prospective Business Relations

50. Sentient Jet realleges and incorporates herein the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 28 and to the extent necessary under applicable law, Sentient Jet alleges the following Count IV in the alternative to Count I.

51. Sentient Jet has contractual and prospective business relations with numerous third parties.

52. Mr. Early, with improper purpose and means, threatens to disrupt Sentient Jet's relationships with third parties with which Sentient Jet has prospective business relations.

53. Sentient Jet has suffered and will suffer substantial harm as a result of the defendants' actions.

COUNT V
Conversion

54. Sentient Jet realleges and incorporates herein the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 28 and to the extent necessary under applicable law, Sentient Jet alleges the following Count V in the alternative to Count I.

55. By doing the acts complained of herein, Mr. Early wrongfully took possession of Sentient Jet's property and converted it for his own use, benefit and financial gain, without Sentient Jet's consent or permission, in violation of his contractual and common law duties to Sentient Jet.

56. As a proximate result of Mr. Early's decision to convert Sentient Jet's property for his own use and the use of Bird Do Jet, and for his and their benefit and financial gain, Mr. Early has caused Sentient Jet to suffer damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 12 of 14

57. Mr. Early's acts were willful and malicious, with the deliberate intent to injury Sentient Jet's business and for Mr. Early's own financial gain, thereby entitling Sentient Jet to exemplary damages.

COUNT VI
Violation of Computer Fraud Abuse Prevention Act/18 U.S.C. §1030

58. Sentient Jet realleges and incorporates herein the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 28 and 44 through 49.

59. Mr. Early voluntarily entered into the confidentiality agreement at issue, indicating that he would "not directly or indirectly divulge or make use of any Confidential Information or Trade Secrets without prior written consent of the Company."

60. Sentient Jet would not have provided Mr. Early with access to its confidential and proprietary information had Mr. Early refused to agree to the terms of the confidentiality agreement.

61. Mr. Early knowingly, and with the intent to defraud Sentient Jet, accessed Sentient Jet's proprietary and confidential information that is stored on its secure and protected databases. Mr. Early repeatedly used, disclosed and misappropriated confidential information belonging to Sentient Jet to assist in a competitive business venture and in so doing, he breached his duty of loyalty to Sentient Jet.

62. Mr. Early acted without access and/or he exceeded his authorized access to Sentient Jet's computers and protected databases.

63. As a direct result of Mr. Early's actions, Sentient Jet has suffered damages and/or loss exceeding $5,000.

Case 1:12-cv-11809 Document 1 Filed 09/28/12 Page 13 of 14

PRAYERS FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Sentient Jet requests that this Court award relief as follows:

- (1) Actual and compensatory damages, including but not limited to all of Sentient Jet's lost profits, all of Mr. Early's wrongful gain, all compensation paid by Sentient Jet to Mr. Early during the pendency of his wrongful and tortious acts.
- (2) An injunction requiring Mr. Early to abide by the terms of the Agreement.
- (3) An order requiring Mr. Early to provide a full accounting of its activities and the activities of Bird Dog Jet during his employment with Sentient Jet.
- (4) Attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the Agreement and statute.
- (5) Multiple damages pursuant to statute.
- (6) Interest.
- (7) Pre-judgment attachment of assets sufficient to satisfy an eventual judgment in this action.
- (8) Such other legal or equitable relief that the Court deems just and appropriate.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff requests a jury trial on all claims which are triable to a jury.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to comply production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend

trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or
- (iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,
- (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend

trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

CONFIDENTIALITY, NONSOLICITATION, NON DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made between Christopher Early ("Employee") and Sentient Flight Group LLC (defined as the "Company" herein). In consideration of the employment of Employee and the compensation paid to Employee by the Company, the adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, both parties agree as follows:

1. Definitions:

- a. "Company" means Sentient Jet, along with its managed cooperatives subsidiaries, parents, affiliated entities, and includes the successors and assigns of the Company or any such related entities.
- b. "Business of the Company" means the following businesses: a private jet membership and card program business, a fuel purchasing and management business, a pilot training business, and a charter broker business.
- c. "Material Contact" means personal contact or the supervision of the efforts of those who have direct personal contact with a vendor, supplier or customer.
- d. "Confidential Information" means information about Company and its employees, customers, vendors and/or suppliers which is not generally known outside of the Company, which Employee learns of in connection with Employee's employment with the Company, and which would be useful to competitors of the Company. Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to: (1) business and employment policies, marketing methods and the targets of those methods, financial data, business plans, promotional materials, price lists, price books, order guides, pricing and pricing strategies, profit and loss statements, and sales and account records; (2) present and prospective customer lists, customer classes, customer preferences and buying patterns, and customer credit information; (3) the terms upon which the Company obtains products from its vendors and/or suppliers and sells them to customers; and (4) the manner in which the Company provides products and services to its customers; and (5) the nature, origin, composition and development of the Company's brands and products.
- e. "Trade Secrets" means Confidential Information which meets the additional requirements of the Uniform Trade Secrets Act or similar state law.

2. Duty of Confidentiality. To assist Employee in the performance of his or her duties for the Company, the Company has provided and will provide to Employee certain Confidential Information. Employee agrees that during employment with the Company and for a period of five (5) years following the cessation of that employment for any reason, Employee shall not directly or indirectly divulge or make use of any

3. Confidential Information or Trade Secrets without prior written consent of the Company. Employee further agrees that if Employee is questioned about information subject to this Agreement by anyone not authorized to receive such information, Employee will promptly notify Employee's supervisor(s) or an officer of the Company. This Agreement does not limit any longer period of protection or the remedies available under applicable common or statutory law, which may impose longer duties of non-disclosure.

3. Return of Property and Information. Employee agrees not to remove any Company property from the Company's premises, except when authorized by the Company. Employee agrees to return all the Company's property within five (5) days following the cessation of Employee's employment for any reason. Such property includes, but is not limited to, the original and any copy (regardless of the manner in which it is recorded) of all information provided by the Company to Employee or which Employee has developed or collected in the scope of Employee's employment, as well as all Company-issued equipment, supplies, accessories, computers and computer disks, computer files, vehicles, keys, instruments, tools, devices, cellular telephones, pagers, materials, documents, plans, records, notebooks, drawings, or papers.

4. Assignment of Work Product and Inventions. Employee hereby assigns and grants to the Company (and will upon request take any actions needed to formally assign and grant to the Company and/or obtain patents, trademark registrations or copyrights belonging to the Company) the sole and exclusive ownership of any and all inventions, information, reports, computer software or programs, writings, technical information or work product collected or developed by Employee, alone or with others, during the term of Employee's employment. This duty applies whether or not the foregoing inventions or information are made or prepared in the course of employment with the Company, so long as such inventions or information relate to the business of Employer and have been developed in whole or in part during the term of Employee's employment. Employee agrees to advise the Company in writing of each invention that Employee, alone or with others, makes or conceives during the term of Employee's employment.

5. Non-Solicitation Covenant. Employee agrees that during employment with the Company and for a period of one (1) year following the cessation of employment for any reason, or one (1) year from the date a court of competent jurisdiction enforces the terms of the Agreement, whichever is later, Employee will not directly or indirectly solicit, attempt to solicit, divert from the Company or transact business with any of the Company suppliers, vendors, or customers with whom Employee had material contact during the last twelve (12) months of Employee's employment with the Company if the purpose of the solicitation, attempted solicitation, diversion or transaction is to offer products which are the same as or similar to those offered or provided by Employee on behalf of the Company at the time Employee's employment ceased, so long as the Company is continuing to provide those services or products. Prior clients of the Employee shall be excluded from this restriction: The clients must be listed as an attachment to this agreement that is mutually agreed upon prior to the start date of the Employee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company terminates Employee's employment without cause (as defined in the offer letter between the Company and Employee dated July 16, 2009 (the "Offer Letter"), the duration of the Employee's covenant in this Section 5 shall be one (1) year or such shorter period during which the Company makes severance payments to Employee in accordance with the Offer Letter.

6. Non-Recruitment of Company Employees. While employed by the Company, and for a period of one (1) year following the cessation of employment for any reason, Employee will not directly or indirectly solicit or attempt to solicit any employee of the Company, or any individual who, when Employee's employment ceased, had been an employee of the Company within a six-month period preceding the date Employee's employment ended, for the purpose of encouraging, enticing, or causing said employee to terminate employment with the Company.

7. Remedies. Employee agrees that a breach of any of the covenants set forth in paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 or their subparts would result in irreparable injury and damage to the Company for which the Company would have no adequate remedy at law. Employee further agrees that in the event of such a breach, that the Company shall be entitled to an immediate injunction to prevent such violations and to all costs and expenses incurred as a result, including reasonable attorney's fees, in addition to any other remedies, including damages, to which the Company may be entitled.

8. Reasonable of Restrictions. Employee has carefully read and considered the provisions of paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 and their subparts and agrees that the restrictions set forth are fair and reasonable and are reasonably required for the protection of the interests of the Company, its officers, directors, and employees. If notwithstanding the foregoing, any of the provisions of paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7, or their subparts shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless continue to be valid and enforceable as though the invalid or unenforceable parts had not been included. If any provision of paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 or 7 or their subparts shall be declared by a court to be unreasonable and unenforceable, the parties agree that the court may modify the provision so that the restrictions are made reasonable and enforceable.

9. Miscellaneous.

a. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, except for such Delaware laws as would result in the application of the substantive law of another jurisdiction. With respect to any suit, action or proceeding arising hereunder or in connection therewith (i) each party irrevocably submits and consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal or state court in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and (ii) each party irrevocably waives any objection to the laying of venue of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement which is brought in either such court in such states, irrevocably waives any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in either such court in such states has been brought in an inconvenient forum and irrevocably waives the right to object, with respect to any such claim, action or proceeding brought in either such court in such states, that such court does not have jurisdiction over such party.

b. No modification, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Agreement, nor consent to any departure by the Employee therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by both parties and the waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which it is given.

c. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Employee and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements, whether oral or written.

d. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Employee and the Company, and their respective heirs, personal and legal representatives, successors and assigns.

e. The waiver by either the Employee or the Company of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate to waive or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach.

Employee has carefully read and understands the provisions of this Agreement, and understands that he or she has the right to seek independent advice or to propose modifications prior to signing the Agreement.
